SMS Notifications for ERP Users

About SMS Notifications

This service sends SMS notifications to registered ERP users (store owners or authorized staff) when new customer orders are created in the system.

- SMS notifications are opt-in only
- Messages are transactional and system-generated (order alerts only)
- Users can disable SMS notifications at any time from within the ERP settings or by replying STOP to any message
- Message frequency depends on order volume
- Message and data rates may apply
